The Hollywood Police Activities League is presenting its second annual Car and Art Show on Sunday, May 7, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Hollywood Boulevard will be closed between Vine and Gower streets for the event.

Tom “Shotgun” Kelly, of Sirius 60’s Gold, will serve as master of ceremonies for the event. At 10:30 a.m., a collection of celebrity and historic police vehicles will gather on the boulevard, including vintage and classic cars. The parade, led by Gary Goltz driving Broderick Crawford’s car from “Highway Patrol,” will drive down the boulevard and join in the festivities.

Entry to the event is free and open to the public. The event includes music by DJ Luis and a beer garden.

Family art activities include tile and bracelet making. The Girls Scouts of America will serve agua frescas.

Proceeds benefit youth activities programs, including their judo program. For more information, visit hollywoodpal.org/carshow. Link to original article
